

I think that the law that we have in wisconsin is just fine and the fact that the business that you no longer want to deal with is still allowed to call you. If there is a product that I want I am fully capable of finding it on my own. I don't need someone calling me in the evenings and harrasing me. I use to have a terminally ill family member in my household, before the no call list he was almost hurting himself to get to the phone because he thought that it would be something important. Many of the times that the phone rang it was a solicitor or some sort. Therefore, the thought of NOT having the no call list is completely ridiculous!! Thank you for time in reading my thoughts on this matter.
